

Lydia H. Liu

Liu is a theorist of media and translation, a professor of comparative literature, and a bilingual writer in Chinese and English.

Friday

Nov. 17, 11:00am

THE JABBERWOCKY NONSENSE

The Place of Meaning in Translation

Hand Art Center classroom // cultural credit

Dr. Liu will explore the disjuncture between word and letter, the relationship between letter and number, as well as the boundary of sense and nonsense in general, all of which have been brought into sharp focus by the conceptual and technological revolution in digital media

VISITING SCHOLAR
PROGRAM

The PHI BETA KAPPA Society

The PHI BETA KAPPA Society

Founded in 1776, the Phi Beta Kappa Society is the nation's most prestigious academic honor society. Its mission is to champion education in the liberal arts and sciences, to recognize academic excellence, and to foster freedom of thought and expression.